Grooms Win From Their Neighbors

by Heavy Batting. Bracklyn, N. Y., July 2.—The New Yorks were a sad speciacle after their game with the Bridgmouns at Eastern Park this aftermoon. They looked like sure winners before one-third of the distance had been traveled, having the game well in hand, by a score of 10 to 2. The Brook-lyns, however, were not to be cutdone, and through heavy stick work, coupled with glaring misplays by the New Yorks, they managed to win out at the end. Battimore, Md., July 2.—To-day's game with the champions was a fearful and wonderful exhibition. The Orloles won in a cauter, but beyond that the least said the better. Accidents will happen in the best regulated families, and the finest ball team in the world will have an off day, and that is what happened to the Orioles yesterday,
The game was one of those many long-drawn-out affairs which disgust evey-body. It lasted for two hours and forty minutes and its definess was refleved only by the peculiarly lurid exhibition of fielding to which the Orioles at intervals dur-ing the game treated the spectators. CHANGED THE MAKEUP

A certain languid interest was also aroused by the frequency with which Man-ager Schmelz changed the make-up of

He exhausted the whole repertoire of his pitching department, and, with the other changes in the team, kept the scorers in a hot sweat of anxiety.

Baltimore took such a decided lead in the early part of the game that there was never any question about the result, even when, owing to a series of comical blunders on the part of the Orioles, the Senators scored six runs in the sixth in-

Clarkson was in the box for Baltimore and pitched a remarkably good game under the circumstances. Not a run was made off him up to the that they were playing baseball and al-iowed the Senators to score six earned runs off two his. The Baltimore twirler, how-ever, was somewhat wild, giving seven bases on balls. MADE ANGELS WEED

The fielding behind Clarkson would have made the angels weep. It came in streaks; first a play of the most brilliant description and next one that would have diagraced a schoolbor.

Gleason had a bad day at second and seemed all tangled up. He made three errors. Jennings played a wonderful fast game and managed to sandwich in a Marlarky was then put in, but he lasted only a single inning. In that time he was pour for a triple, double, and two sing good five runs were scored. That was enough for Malarky, and "his whiskers" put in Stocksdale at the beginning of the next inning.

LED THE FUSILADE. In all nineteen hits were made off the Washington pitchers. Willie Keeler led the fusilade with five hits, of which two ere triples and one a double. McGraw and Gleason were second with three each. A remarkable feature of the batting was the great number of long hits Five triples and five doubles were made by the Baitmore batsmen, The fielding of the Senators was somewhat of an improvement over that of the Orioles

The team was playing under great disadvantages—Mahoney was on first in place of Cartwright, Crooks was out of the game, Mercer taking his place for three innings, when he was released by Boyd.

Notwithstanding this crippled condition. the Senators played a very creditable fielding game; positively brilliant at times. Abbey made the star catch of the game in the third inning, when, after a long, hard run back, he captured Joe Kelley's hard fun back, he captured foe keney's fly right off the centerfield fence.

This play took mightly with the crowd, and Abbey received quite an ovation when he came in from the field. At the bat, too, Abbey was very much in it, making four pretty singles.

Scrappy Joyce, however, made the hit of the day when he knocked the ball over the right field feace in the ninth inning for a home run. The game was marked by much kick-ing against the umpite's decisions. Capt.

PHILLIES WIN ANOTHER.

Bostons Hand Over Three Successive Games to the Quakers. Philadelphia, July 2.—The Phillies pulled another game out of the fire in the tenth inning to-day. The visitors started out with the evident intention of retrieving their past two failures, and put up a snappy article of ball for four innings, in the first two of which they made lively double plays. Then the Phillies dropped to Dolan, making seven hits off him. Sexton was put in the box in the seventh and he was touched up for six. The Beaneaters tied the score in the ninth on singles by McCarthy and Duffy, and Taylor's wild throw. The final inning put the crowd in a quiver of excitement. Boyle, Thompson, and Delehanty singled, and Hallman rapped out a triple, netting three runs. McCarthy singled, but was run down between second and third; Lowe went out at first, and Ryan and Sexton singled, both scoring, but Long, who had caught at the plate, Cross to Clements. DALY HAD NO DIFFICULTY.

In the Ninth Round He Put an End to Burnett's Dodging.

The contest at the Eureka Club last night between Jack Daly, of Washington, and Joe Burnett, a local lightweight, turned out somewhat of a fizzle. Daly had his man out at any stage of the game and gave the quietus in the ninth round after simply playing with him during the early rounds.

The attendance was much better than at the Wilsen-McCann battle, at least 300 sports being present. The fight was sched-uled to take place at 8 30 sharp, but there was a discrepent over the weight and Burnett refused to go on until be had been paid forfelt money.

During the wait a preliminary go of six rounds was put on and it proved a hummer. rounds was put on and it proved a hummer.

Alec Brown and "Pocahontas" Smith, local colored lads, were the contestants and they went at it hammer and tongs.

It was a pretty even thing up to the last round when Alec did some fast work which won him the decision.

The main go of the evening was brought on about ten o'clock. John Nash and Benjamin Allen did the honors for Burnett, while Ned Donnelly, Johnny Dillon, of Wilmington, A. Leonard, of New York, and Henry Pizer went into the white man's corner. John Duffy officiated as referee.

Alexander Island Officials Should Not Have Let Her Race.

EVIDENCE OF DISHONESTY

Tompkins' Tancred Brought Chateau's Colors Down-Son Malheur Won All the Way-Duffy Rode a Miserable Race-Gallatin Quickly Shook off Paris.

The Alexander Island officials never showed their incompetency and lack of regard for the interests of the betting public in a more open way than they did yesterday when they allowed Charma to start in the two-year-old cace. The fact that a horse is lame, short of work and blistered all over the shoulders does not seem to make the least difference. and the betting goes on just the same. The officials were fully aware of the condition in which the filly went to the post, but paid no heed to it and allowed the bookles to rake in the talent's money unmolested. LACK OF HONESTY While the management showed a woeful lack of honesty in allowing her to start the owners of the filly are fully as much, if not more, to blame. They knew that she did not have a chance in the world to beat Hera and consequently bet their money on the latter.

It is perfectly legitimate for a man to run one horse and bet on another if he thinks his entry cannot win. The criminal part of such a proceeding is shown, how-ever, when the horse that he runs is either pulled or not in a fit condition to

In case she had been scratched it would have practically broken up a race, but better do that than allow the public to be openly robbed. It is such things as this that are hastening the end of the Island track and those running it not only don't make any attempt to prevent, but wink at any crooked game by which they can help swell their own coffers. LOWERED CHATEAU'S COLORS.

Gwynn Tompkins' speedy little Tancred lowered Chateau's colors in great style in the closing race. True, the latter broke down, but it was dollars to cents he had him beaten at all stages of the game. Son Malheur was the choice in the open ing race and he justified the betting by winning all the way. Watch Charm came fast at the finish and ran into second place. In the two-year-old race Hera got a running start and opening up a big gap was never caught.

The maiden race brought a lot of dogs to the post of which Captain Bob was made a 6 to 5 choice. Duffy rode a miserable race on him and he finished third to Reform and Gallatin was a 1 to 4 chance in the fourth event and won it easily. Paris hung on gamely, but with a little shak-ing up at the end the favorite drew away. Glenall was an indifferent third. Col. Maddux spring a good one in the fifth event with Young Magenta. Fair Play was favorite, but could do no better than third to Young Magenta and Lento. Tancred rushed out at the start, and, setting a merry clip, was never caught. Kazan was second, two lengths before Chateau.

THEY MUST BUY SEEDS.

Agricultural Department Will Furnish No More to Congressmen. The usual general distribution of seeds by the Agricultural Department will not take place next year. An opinion was given by place next year. An opinion was given by Attorney General Othey some time ago that as the law provided for furnishing "rare" seeds for scientific purposes. Secretary Morton was not compelled to expend the appropriation made in distributing the common seeds.

Secretary Morton has always opposed the general free seed distribution, which has become one of the regular duties of the Agricultural Department and of Congressmen, and under the authority of the At-men, and under the authority of the At-torney's opinion during this fiscal rear he will imagurate a reform and supply no seeds save for scientific purposes.
